

Katie Kalkstein explores the relationship between people, landscape, and their changing environment with its inherent mysteries and dualities. She is represented by Anzenberger Gallery, Vienna, Austria and has shown at the Center for Fine Art Photography, Tilt Gallery, Colorado Photographic Arts Center, Medium Photography Festival, and the Yixian and Lishui Photography Festivals in China. She has also been published several times in Diffusion magazine and was a Critical Mass Top 200 Artist in 2014. She received her degree from Savannah College of Art and Design and teaches at Art Students League in Denver, CO.