

Bio Portrait (collaboration with Jody Sterrett Johnson)

Katie Kalkstein explores the relationship between people, landscape, and the changing environment with its inherent mysteries and dualities. She is represented by Anzenberger Gallery, Vienna, Austria and Walker Fine Art, Denver, CO; and has shown at the Center for Fine Art Photography, Tilt Gallery, Colorado Photographic Arts Center, Medium Photography Festival, and the Yixian and Lishui Photography Festivals in China. Public art works include The Fence by United Photo Industries/Photoville. She has also been published several times in Diffusion magazine, and was a Critical Mass Top 200 Artist in 2014. She received her degree from Savannah College of Art and Design and teaches at Art Students League in Denver, CO.